

Looking for Brewmaster for our new brewery project

World of Beer Distribution, is the largest independent beer importer and distributor in Romania, having in our brand portfolio beers from around the world, like: Paulaner, Bavaria, Fullers, Shepherd Neame, Marstons, Bernard, Sapporo, Tsingtao, Saigon, etc.

Seven years ago, we have launched our own craft beer label, Nenea Iancu, by its name and we are in the proper moment to start building our own brewery project.

At this moment we are planning to construct the building, which will be finished at the end of June, so we could start mantling the brewhouse in beginning/mid July of 2019 and therefore we are looking for an experienced brewmaster who will be in charge for the management of the production in our brewery.

Responsibilities:

- Managing all Brewing activities;
- Obsessing cleaning, and attention to hygiene & safety;
- Yeast Management and Analysis;
- Overseeing the quality and consistency of the beers;
- Some events and promotion duties;
- Developing new beer recipes;
- Managing the stocks of the malt, hops, yeast, bottles, carton, etc. ;
- Ordering anything in regards with the production material, finished product and spare parts for the brewing machineries;
- Maintaining a safe and tidy work environment by implementing safety procedures so everyone is aware of health and safety protocols on site;
- Managing the personnel working in the brewery: Assistant brewers, workers, etc.

Requirements:

- Professional Brewing Experience, minimum of 15 years. On the other hand, if there is somebody who has less experience, but he can prove he could manage everything, then it would be no problem;
- Experience of managing processes and scheduling work;
- Good experience of managing a staff, in a happy and friendly environment, plus a good experience to keep the team close to him;
- Good communication skills (written and verbal);
- Drivers license.

Job Type: Full-time.
